

HORSE BOARDING RULES AND INFORMATION

Owners of horses staying at Gordon Creek must be a registered guest at Gordon Creek RV Park and Cabins.

I certify that I am the legal owner of the horse or horses in my possession. I agree to release and discharge Gordon Creek RV Park and Cabins, its owner, and employees from all future claims arising from personal injury, horse injury, death, or property damage.

All horses must be kept in designated pens assigned by Gordon Creek.

All horses must be kept off regular campsites.

Horses are not allowed to graze outside of the pen on the campsite or anywhere else on Gordon Creek property.

All horses must have current health certificates (within 30 days) and Coggins tests (within 1 year). No exceptions!

No stallions are allowed at Gordon Creek.

Each horse owner must provide and feed his/her own horse.

Any panel damage will result in a fee of $150 per panel.

Each horse owner is responsible for the daily cleaning of pens and campsites.

At check out, the pens and campsites must be free of manure, hay, straw, and all bedding or a cleaning fee of $50 will be charged to the bill.

Dogs cannot be left unattended i.e. tied to a tree or left in a trailer, or Cabin.

Check in time for horse runs is 3:00 pm, and check out for horse runs is 12 p.m.

Riding trails may be subject to closure due to various conditions such as weather, maintenance, and safety concerns.
